Church, Harrisburg, Pa It was in my sick chamber, when my soul seemed listening to the swellings of Jordan, that the conscience within me inquired how, if my life were spared until to-day, should I perform my share of its duties? What should be the burden of my message to you? What lessons of the hour should I essay to teach? The answer, that after thoughtful hours of meditation and prayer, I gave to conscience, I will now utter in your hearing, humbly soliciting the Divine guidance; God s blessing upon that which I shall say that is truthful and wise, His forgiveness for all that in my ignorance I may speak unwisely. What are the grounds for the proclamation of this day, closing our places of business and opening our churches at the invitation of the Chief Magistrate of this free nationality! Why, to-day, are we here to fill the courts of God s sanctuary with praise and thanksgiving? Hear the answer of the Proclamation: It has pleased Almighty God to hearken to the supplications and prayers of an afflicted people, and to vouchsafe to the Army and the Navy of the United States victories on land and on the sea, so signal and so effective as to furnish reasonable grounds for augmented confidence that the Union of these States will be maintained, their Constitution preserved, and their peace and prosperity permanently restored. We are here, then, to praise God for signal and effective victories on the land and on the sea. Victories that have cost sacrifices of life,...
