How the Warthog Got His Warts: An African Children's Folktale (Paperback)

By Alina Niemi

Alina's Pencil Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Long ago in Africa, the warthog was a very different creature than the one you see today. He looked a lot like a pig, and he thought he was very handsome indeed. In fact, he thought he was the most beautiful creature in all the savanna. He insulted Dik-Dik, Waterbuck, Baboon, and Lion. So when he got into a sticky situation, nobody wanted to help him. How did he get those warts? You'll have to read the book to find out! This is the Book 1 of the Alina's Folk Tales for Kids series. Recommended for children age 3 - 8 Contains fun animal facts, puzzle, maze, and drawing pages Set in the African savanna, this folk tale is full of whimsical, colorful illustrations of the animal neighbors. Warthog learns the hard way how to get along with them. You'll find out why he does some of the things he does in nature. Children's folktales are classics for a reason. Kids enjoy finding out what happens to the often naughty animals in these tall tales. I bet...
