In this graphic novel by Andre Campbell the author introduces you to Cal, a disabled young man who has had a rough experience in life. Personal challenges and bullying by his peers makes his life challenging to say the least. With his loyal dog, Max and a loving family he remains hopeful that things can get better. He is given a journal written by his birth mother by his adoptive parents that will forever change his life. This is Andre Campbells statement to all those whose lives are wrought with challenges. It is his reminder that they are not alone in wanting things to get better. The interior of the Paperback is black and white to also provide an opportunity for the reader to engage in their own artistic experience by coloring it in with the medium of choice.
