

Migrant Sun (Paperback)

By Ramon Ledesma

Village Books, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Observing a mysterious white culture while living on the ragged edge of poverty in an unaccepted Mexican subculture of America was acutely troubling to a child simply looking for safety, acceptance and a place to belong. These poems are of the brutal struggles of hard work in dangerous times. These poems are about a papa who never wavered under the difficult challenges of working and raising a family in a foreign country as a migrant laborer and a mama who dedicated herself to loving and protecting her children at all costs, in a man s world, twice over. In a time when we were innocent and vulnerable and the world was a scary, foreign place, all we had were our parent s gifts. Papa s strong work ethic helped us forge ahead and not give up through difficult times and Mama s passion and the pictures she painted in our minds filled us with hope. and hope was the road we traveled into our future. Migrant Sun is a poignant tale of love in hard times, racism, forgiveness in the face of brutality,...
