Excerpt: .humility is learnt, then he has the very mind of Christ, and that which brings him forth a Son of God. Who then can enough-wonder at that bulk of libraries, which has taken place of this short lesson of the gospel, or at that number of champion disputants, who from age to age have been all in arms to support and defend a set of opinions, doctrines, and practices, all which may be most cordially embraced, without the least degree of selfdenial, and most firmly held fast, without getting the least degree of humility by it?-What a grossness of ignorance, both of man and his Saviour, to run to Greek and Roman schools to learn how to put off-Adam, and to put on Christ? To drink at the fountains of Pagan poets and orators, in order more divinely to drink of the cup that...
