Kambarangwe Institute of Leadership & Innovation. Paperback. Condition: New. 532 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.2in. It all began like a rising flower bud, nonetheless, a ROSE I would forever consider to be injurious rather than a blessing, had it not been for my audacity: THE AUDACITY OF LOVE! Hailing from, and raised in a third generation Christian family in Ngara and Karagwe, Tanzania, in the neighborhood where Muslims were few and far apart, I considered them Muslims, their faith and traditions as strange and unconventional! My father, raised and educated at Rubya Seminary, a Christian school during the colonial Tanganyika, believed there was only one true religion Christianity and he passed the same mentality down. I believed him! Then I went to a boarding secondary school, a school far from home, near the shores of the Lake Victoria at Kahororo, and later at Ihungu, in a cosmopolitan town of Bukoba! That's where my first shock registered. Multiculturalism among tribes and religions was the standard notwithstanding the fact that Christians still outnumbered Traditionalists, Muslims, Buddhists and Hindu, all put together, the latter of whom I had met for the first time! Trouble began when I went to the university the University of Dar es Salaam, located just a few miles from the shores separating Arabia and the rest of the country the area wherein Muslims were majority! It didn't click in my mind that it was an important revelation yet the lesson they ought to teach at the university! I began working and made new friends among whom were Muslims. It still didn't change me much, or call my attention to such important details. Then, I met a beautiful girl, a girl who deserved nothing less than a hand in marriage! Trouble had begun! Why This girl who had descended into my life was Muslim! I was shocked...
