Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . After some major midlife setbacks, Samantha Jarrett has started life over. She's returned to her beloved Indiana hometown and is finally settling in as owner of the town's only bed-and-breakfast. Still, she waits for what's next: for her inn to show a profit, for a son's much-anticipated announcement, and, maybe even for love. Stan Bennett is also waiting. For most of his life, he's kept a secret. The time has come to reveal it and pursue his dream before it's too late. But there's a problem: he's falling in love with Samantha. Could she change his plans? Joy Williamson is waiting, as well: for her baby's arrival and for her complicated life to straighten out. In the meantime, she's gotten off to a rocky start with her innkeeper. How will she get through the trying months ahead? While their lives come together in one small town, they're searching for that sweet place where life is good, and love conquers all. Readers who enjoy Donna Cronk's charming novels savor each chapter. Her main characters are flawed-as are we all-yet they seek lifestyles of cherishing community and commitment to their beliefs. They are looking for home. Perhaps that means a new location, or maybe staying in this small town. Either way, their lives are about to take a variety of twists and turns. Along with Samantha, Stan, and Joy, others drop by to enrich the pages. There's Samantha's nemesis, Ellen, who can't accept that the innkeeper landed the prettiest house in town, the one where Ellen would love to live. She's hatching a new plan to get...
