

Perdida: Essays to Be Read While Intoxicated

By Shawn Michael Severud

Phoenix Alaska, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Shawn Michael Severud s perdida: essays to read while intoxicated is a series of love letters to one of the most unifying experiences in life: being young, dumb and in love. This is a haunting collection of essays that exalts life, breaks it down and creates it anew. It brings words to the huddled masses. It shatters televisions. It brings forth light. In this new age of technology, most of us have a Facebook, Twitter or a Tumblr. Could your old status updates, tweets or blog posts ever become a book? Twenty-six year old author, Shawn Michael Severud, has been writing blogs as a sort of release, or free therapy, for at least seven or eight years. Now he has released many of them as a book, which is a collection of Jack Kerouac-esque essays entitled: perdida: essays to be read while intoxicated. The essays seem to be full of personal meaning for the author, about the growing pains of being a twenty-something: being in love, dealing with depression, as well as thoughts on religion, life and...
